

Wednesday 2 November
Bone Marrow Failure General

• Bone Marrow Biology
• Centre of Research
• Excellence.

 Maddie
Riewoldt's
Vision.

7pm - 9pm AEDST*

Chair of session - Dr Lucy Fox

Time	TOPIC	SPEAKER
7pm	Welcome to the third Patient & Family Forum on Bone Marrow Failure Syndromes	Professor David Ritchie Maddie's Vision Board member and Chair of the Centre of Research Excellence in Bone Marrow Biology) Dr Lucy Fox Chair of the Patient & Family Forum Organising Committee, Bone Marrow Failure Fellow - Peter MacCallum Cancer Centre)
7.10pm	Introducing the diseases, principles of treatment and the Aplastic Anaemia and Other Bone Marrow Failure Syndromes Registry / the Australian Marrow Failure Biobank	Dr Lucy Fox Bone Marrow Failure Fellow - Peter MacCallum Cancer Centre
7.20pm	Transition from paediatric care to adulthood: the Transallo project	Yvonne Panek-Hudson Nurse Practitioner, Clinical Haematology & Clinical lead, Allogeneic bone marrow transplant long term follow up service. Associate Director of Nursing, Haematology & Medical Oncology - Peter MacCallum Cancer Centre and Royal Melbourne Hospital
7.30pm	Role of the genetic counsellor in setting of family planning in inherited bone marrow diseases	Laura Barth Associate Genetic Counsellor, Haematology - Peter MacCallum Cancer Centre
7.40pm	Preparing for procedures and pain management - psychological support for paediatrics	Kari Peters Comfort First Clinician, Certified Child Life Specialist, Children's Cancer Centre - Royal Children's Hospital
7.50pm	Nutrition at home for Bone Marrow Failure patients	Jodie Bartle Clinical Specialist Dietitian - The Royal Children's Hospital
8.00pm	Central venous catheter care	Eloise Borello Clinical Nurse Consultant, Vascular Access - The Royal Children's Hospital
8.10pm	What is gene editing and gene therapy?	Associate Professor Andrew Deans Head, Genome Stability Unit - St Vincent's Institute
8.20pm	Acquired (non inherited) mutations in Bone Marrow Failure patients	Rebecca Walsh Haematologist, Prince of Wales Hospital, NSW
8.30pm	Q&A session	All speakers
9pm	END of session

* Australian Eastern Daylight Saving Time